

Urban Section (Hampton to University)

Safety: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).
1 – Highest, 5 – Lowest

- On-street bike lanes
- Sidewalks on one side of the street
- Sidewalks on both sides of the street
- Continuous center turn lane
- Turn lanes only at intersections
- Other: _____

Aesthetics: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).
1 – Highest, 6 – Lowest

- Landscaped median
- Lighting
- Parks and Greenways
- Gateway sign/feature for City of Aiken
- Signage for neighborhoods
- Street trees along edge of road
- Other: _____

Residential Land Use: Please rank the following residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 7 – Lowest

- Encourage large lot homes (lots>1 acre)
- Encourage neighborhood homes (lots>1 acre lots)
- Encourage detached housing including smaller lot cottage homes
- Encourage a mix of attached housing (townhomes, duplexes, apartments)
- Encourage a mix of attached and detached housing dependent on location (higher density near the City)
- Encourage open space in new residential developments (i.e. greenways and trails, fields and other recreation facilities)
- Preserve key natural resources (forests, water quality buffers, steep slopes) with subdivision design.
- Other: _____

Non Residential Land Use: Please rank the following non-residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 6 – Lowest

- Strip mall shopping centers (buildings parallel to roadway with large parking lot in front)
- Neighborhood mixed use centers (grocery, shops and restaurants clustered in a “village form” with parking on the periphery)
- Restaurants (fast food)
- Restaurants (sit down)
- Convenience stores
- Hotels
- Other: _____

Please complete and place this form in the “Comment” box or mail before Monday, May 19th, 2014.

Edgefield Highway(SC 19 North) Corridor Planning Study Comment Form

Rural Neighborhood Section (University to I-20)

Safety: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).

1 – Highest, 6 – Lowest

- On-street bike lanes
- Sidewalks on one side of the street
- Sidewalks on both sides of the street
- Multi-use path
- Continuous center turn lane
- Turn lanes only at intersections
- Other: _____

Aesthetics: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).

1 – Highest, 8 – Lowest

- Landscaped median
- Lighting
- Parks and Greenways
- Gateway sign/feature for City of Aiken
- Signage for neighborhoods
- Street trees along edge of road
- Maintain forested buffers along highway with new development
- Preserve farmland
- Other: _____

Residential Land Use: Please rank the following residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 7 – Lowest

- Encourage large lot homes (lots>1 acre)
- Encourage neighborhood homes (lots>1 acre lots)
- Encourage detached housing including smaller lot cottage homes
- Encourage a mix of attached housing (townhomes, duplexes, apartments)
- Encourage a mix of attached and detached housing dependent on location (higher density near the City)
- Encourage open space in new residential developments (i.e. greenways and trails, fields and other recreation facilities)
- Preserve key natural resources (forests, water quality buffers, steep slopes) with subdivision design.
- Other: _____

Non Residential Land Use: Please rank the following non-residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 6 – Lowest

- Strip mall shopping centers (buildings parallel to roadway with large parking lot in front)
- Neighborhood mixed use centers (grocery, shops and restaurants clustered in a “village form” with parking on the periphery)
- Restaurants (fast food)
- Restaurants (sit down)
- Convenience stores
- Hotels
- Other: _____

Please complete and place this form in the “Comment” box or mail before Monday, May 19th, 2014.

Edgefield Highway(SC 19 North) Corridor Planning Study Comment Form

Rural Section (I-20 to Edgefield County)

Safety: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).
1 – Highest, 3 – Lowest

- Multi-use path
- On-street bike lanes
- Turn lanes at intersections
- Paved Shoulders
- Other: _____

Aesthetics: Please rank the following elements in order of priority (for this section of Edgefield Highway).
1 – Highest, 2 – Lowest

- Maintain forested buffers along highway with new development
- Preserve farmland
- Signage for Eureka community at 19/191 split
- Flower plantings/beautification feature in median at 19/191 split
- Limit billboards to preserve rural character of South Carolina Heritage Corridor
- Other: _____

Residential Land Use: Please rank the following residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 7 – Lowest

- Encourage large lot homes (lots>1 acre)
- Encourage neighborhood homes (lots>1 acre lots)
- Encourage detached housing including smaller lot cottage homes
- Encourage a mix of attached housing (townhomes, duplexes, apartments)
- Encourage a mix of attached and detached housing dependent on location (higher density near the City)
- Encourage open space in new residential developments (i.e. greenways and trails, fields and other recreation facilities)
- Preserve key natural resources (forests, water quality buffers, steep slopes) with subdivision design.
- Other: _____

Non Residential Land Use: Please rank the following non-residential land uses and design principles in order of priority. 1 – Highest, 7 – Lowest

- Strip mall shopping centers (buildings parallel to roadway with large parking lot in front)
- Neighborhood mixed use centers (grocery, shops and restaurants clustered in a “village form” with parking on the periphery)
- Restaurants (fast food)
- Restaurants (sit down)
- Convenience stores
- Equestrian Facilities
- Hunting Preserves
- Other: _____

Please complete and place this form in the “Comment” box or mail before Monday, May 19th, 2014.

